

Behaviour of Concern Chart for Faculty and Staff

1 = Contact for immediate action or direction
2 = Consult on situation to provide extra support or advice
3 = Make aware of situation
	Student	Police	Security	Dept. Head or Associate Dean/Dean	Counselling Service	OSD	VP of Student Affairs	VP Academic
	Phone Number	911	36111		78264	32506	36467	39644
	Hours of Operation	24/7	24/7		9-5	9-5	9-5	9-5
You are concerned about a student who ...
Signs of Emotional Distress
	Writes or talks about wanting to die		1	2	1
	Cries uncontrollably without apparent provocation	2			1
	Shows marked deterioration in attendance and/or quality of academic work	1
	Shows marked deterioration in usual participation patterns (e.g. no longer answers questions, falls asleep in class)	1			2
	Shows marked deterioration in personal hygiene/grooming (e.g. lack of showering, hair care, clean clothing, shaving, etc.)	2		1	2
	Shows marked difficulty making decisions, and/or following directions	1
Markedly Unusual Thinking/Behaviour
	Displays behaviour that seems out of touch with reality (e.g. appears to be talking to others who are not present; yells to no one)	2		1	1
	Is dressed unusually for the setting (e.g. wearing diving suit, clown suit, superhero outfit, clothes pegs in hair, when not Halloween etc.)	1		2
	Makes unusual comments (e.g. "The gods have told me that the karma is bad in this building")	2	2	2	1
	Appears very suspicious (e.g. fears that others are spying or watching)	2		2	1
	Claims without apparent foundation that their work has been stolen, or plagiarized, by other students	2		1
	Returns to classes or placement site after having been withdrawn and instructed not to return.			1
	Has slurred speech, unsteady movements, glazed eyes		1	1
	Appears dazed and unaware of surroundings		1	1

[Type here]

1 = Contact for immediate action or direction 2 = Consult on situation to provide extra support or advice 3 = Make aware of situation	Student	Police	Security	Dept. Head or Associate Dean/Dean	Counseling Service	OSD	VP of Student Affairs	VP Academic
Phone Number		911	36111		78264	32506	36467	39644
Hours of Operation		24/7	24/7		9-5	9-5	9-5	9-5
Serious Performance Issues
Shares inappropriate information with fieldwork clients (e.g. shows self-inflicted cuts on arm to primary school children)	2			1
Insists on following fieldwork routines rigidity even after being instructed otherwise	1
Repeatedly seeks performance feedback even after being directed not to do so	1
Shows markedly inconsistent performance; one day performs very well, the next day very poorly	1			1
Aggressive Behaviour
Expresses, in writing or orally, a direct threat to another person (e.g. student, professor)			1	2	2		2
Displays anger and/or hostility towards professor			1	2
Makes disparaging comments about other students	1			2
Displays behaviour that is very disruptive in class (e.g. repeatedly asks unsolicited questions at inappropriate times)	1			2
Is the subject of complaints by other students because of disruptive behaviour(s)	1			1
Does not comply with a reasonable requests by the professor (e.g. to sit in a lecture room chair instead of sitting on the exit stairway)	2		2	1
Displays hostility to professor when given constructive feedback on performance (e.g. exam, assignment, fieldwork)	2			1
Lack of Documentation
Asks professor for academic accommodation without having documentation from the Office for Students with Disabilities						1		